

Bible Reading Plan 2020

Our hope is to foster a daily encounter with God, both individually and as a church family, with a daily reading of a chapter from God's Word.

This year's plan starts off with theologically-rich poetry in January and February. For the spring and summer months, we'll read some of the Bible's history leading up to Jesus and Paul's ministry. Haggai through Nehemiah, specifically, are the prophets and history-makers that describe the period when some exiles returned to rebuild Jerusalem. In the fall, we'll turn to New Testament epistles where the gospel is applied to circumstances that the church had endured. The final few months will capture what the Bible says about the future.

May God bless you richly as you commune with him daily in 2020.
